

[renn]
Reine Kurth

engaging pictures for your
Middle Grade books

lively characters with real feelings — storytelling in composition and details — plenty of imagination and a touch of humour

The secret on the island

Character line-up (end papers)

Personal work

The secret on the island

Half-page illustration | Vignette

Personal work

The secret on the island

Characters study

Personal work

The secret on the island

Characters sketches | Full-page illustration

Personal work

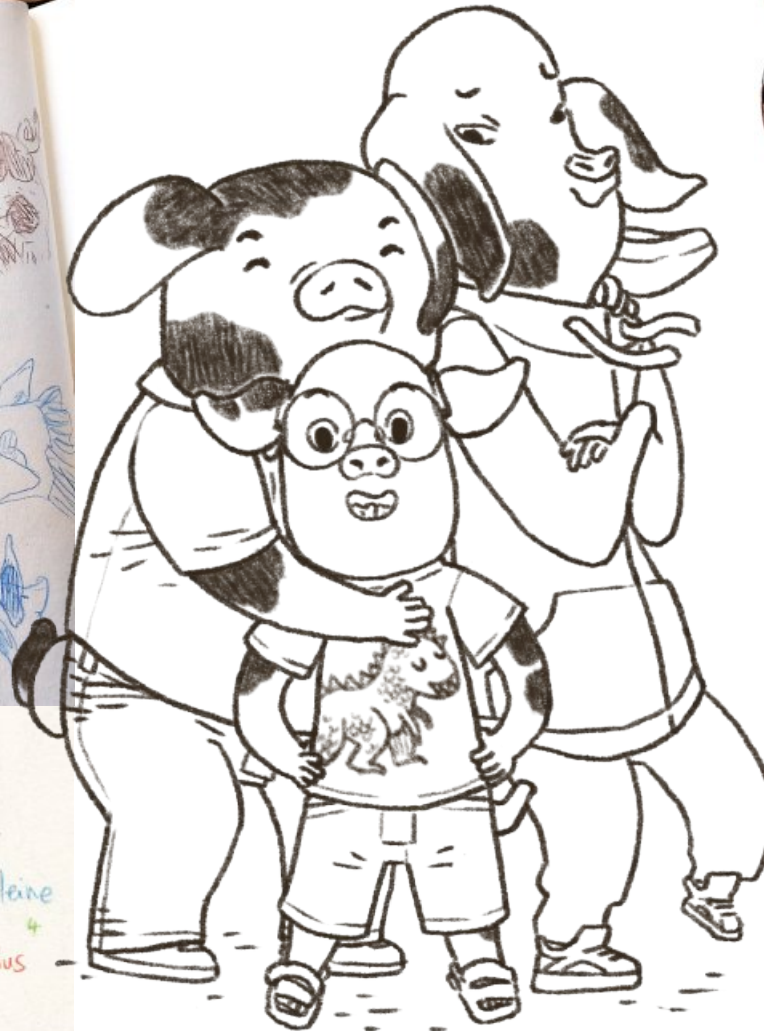

Beware of the wolf

Cover illustration, lettering

Personal work

die 3 schweinchen ...

... und der
kleine wolf

Beware of the wolf
Character design
Personal work

Beware of the wolf

Spot illustration | Chapter heading

Personal work

Beware of the wolf
Vignette
Personal work

Ronja, the robber's daughter

Cover illustration, lettering | Spot illustration

Personal work

Ronja, the robber's daughter

Half-page illustration | Spot illustrations

Personal work

Reine Kurth

engaging pictures for your
Middle Grade books

- 6 sept. 1973 Born in Thionville (Lorraine, France)
- 1976 My reaction as I am told that I am getting a little sister: to draw her with chalk on my little board
- 1981 I read my first “big book”, “Susy et Solveig” – so many times that I eventually know it (almost) by heart
- 1997-2022 Embedded software engineer, automotive, aeronautics, aerospace industries
- 2004 First time at the International Comics Festival in Angoulême, meeting other students of the online class for “image narrative” (~“visual storytelling”), AtelierBD.com
- 2007 Move to Bremen, Germany
- 2008, 2009 Participant in the Bremen Dragon Boat Cup
- 2017 18-day canoeing and camping trip along the Yukon river in North Canada
- Seit 2018 Self-employed illustrator
Member of the Illustratoren Organisation association
- Seit 2022 Proud co-owner of a camper van

Let's make good books together!

