book project

Target group: Easy readers, 6 years and up
Illustrated short novel with comic elements

Format: about 15x21 cm (5.9x8.3 in)

Length: approx. 128 pages

Yano's heard it from his big brothers, from Auntie Sarah, in fact from the whole family (except maybe Uncle Gunnar, but he's an oddball anyway): you just can't trust a wolf! And that applies to Anton too, the new guy in Yano's class, who seems to always be crossing the brothers' path, only to bully and even threaten them.

But Yano has a nagging feeling that there's more to it than meets the eye. What's Anton really about? Did he steal Horns, Yano's favourite dino toy? And whatever happened to Auntie Sarah's beloved budgies?

Chapter 3

Where are you, Horns?

Hey piglet, what's up??
